Nnnnnnnnnnn Numb. 6463.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, July 9. 1722.

London, July 9.

Yeſterday arrived the Mails from Holland, France, and Flanders.

Conſtantinople, June 5.

IT is reported that the King of Perſia is dead at Babylon, whither he had retreated after his late Defeat; but the Port has no Advices of it, although the Baſhaw of that City has ſent Diſpatches hither with an Account of his having aſſembled 30000 Men for the Security of the Frontiers. It is aſſured, that the Ruſſian Miniſter here has acquainted the Grand Vizier, that the Czar ſent an Officer ſome time ago to Miri-Weys, who has newly ſubdued the Perſian Monarchy, to demand Satisfaction for the Damage done to the Caravans of the Ruſſian Merchants returning from China; but this Rebel, far from offering Satisfaction to juſt Complaints, ſent back the Officer in a very outrageous Manner: Wherefore, his Czariſh Majeſty not being able to deſiſt from revenging that Affront, has judged proper to notify it to the Port. To which 'tis ſaid the Grand Vizier made Anſwer, that his Czariſh Majeſty was at Liberty to act in that Caſe as he thought neceſſary. The Biſhop of Scio, and the ſix Monks of that Iſland, who were brought Priſoners hither, and obliged to work at the Fortifications of this City, have at length obtained their Liberty, upon Payment of 35000 Crowns, to the Profit of the Grand Signior and the Captain Baſhaw. Advices from Smyrna ſay, that the Plague is communicated to that Quarter of the Town where the French inhabit, by means of Apparel that was brought thither from ſome other Part.

Madrid, June 22. It is ſaid, that the King has ordered eight Months Arrears to be paid his Troops out of the 14 that are due to them. The Duke of Oſſuna's Departure for Paris is yet deferred. The King has appointed the Marqueſs de Beretti Landi to the Embaſſy at Venice, in Recompence of his Services in ſeveral Negociations in Italy, Switzerland, and Holland. The Marqueſs ſets out for Venice as ſoon as the Congreſs of Cambray is over, where he is to aſſiſt in Quality of Plenipotentiary. At the preſſing Inſtances of the Dutch Secretary reſiding here, the King has ſent Orders to the Governour of Cadiz to deliver up the 12 Sailors and two Boys who lately deſerted from the Ships of Holland in that Port.

Lisbon, June 22. On the 20th Inſtant, his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Durſley-Galley, commanded by Captain Purvis, ſailed out of this Harbour. A Brigantine came in here the 18th Inſtant from Southampton; William Rice, the Maſter, reports, that the Day before five Leagues to the Northward of the Burlings, he was chaſed by an Algerine of 40 Guns, which in the Chace blew up.

Lyons, July 2. The laſt Advices from Orange and Avignon ſay, the Mortality in thoſe Places was much diminiſhed for ſome Days paſt; that things grow better alſo in Marſeilles, and that 'twas hoped the City would ſhortly be freed from the Contagion; but that ſome freſh Diſcoveries of it were made lately at Aix, where three of the Intendant's Domeſticks were newly dead by it; that all poſſible Precautions againſt it were uſed at Toulon, where Commerce is again reſtored between that City and Ollioles; that ſeveral of the late infected Places of Provence are declared to be now free from all Contagion, and are performing their laſt Quarantain, and that ſeveral Ships were ſailed from Marſeilles for the Levant, though 'tis much doubted if they will be allowed Admittance.

Vienna, July 1. The Emperour was preſent Yeſterday at a Grand Council of State held at the Palace of la Favorita: Their Imperial Majeſties ſet out ſhortly for Presbourg, from whence Advices are received that the States of Hungary have conſented to all the Points which the Emperour had cauſed to be propoſed to them, and among others, to that concerning the Succeſſion in default of Male-Iſſue by his Imperial Majeſty. They have cauſed Religious Grievances to be examined by Commiſſaries, and both Parties are diſpoſed to ſubmit to whatever Sentence the Emperour ſhall pleaſe to paſs on that Affair. 'Tis ſaid the States are endeavouring to provide Funds for repairing the Hungarian Fortreſſes, and to build an Hoſpital for maimed and wounded Invalids. A Deſign is talked of for incorporating the whole Territory of Presbourg, as far as Buda, with the Dominions of Auſtria.

Paris, July 11. Count Windiſchgratz, one of the Emperour's Ambaſſadours and Plenipotentiaries for the Congreſs at Cambray, having obtained Leave from his Imperial Majeſty to make a Tour for a Fortnight to this City and Parts adjacent, is arrived at Chantilly, and is expected here To-morrow. Letters from Rome of the 22d of June give an Account, that Cardinal Althan Viceroy of Naples imbarked at Nettuno the 17th for Naples.

Paris, July 15. A Reduction of the Troops is ſtill talked of, but 'tis not preciſely known what Time it will be put in Execution. The Pope's two Briefs which his Holineſs ſent to the King and the Duke Regent, are lately printed here in Latin, at the Royal Printing-Houſe. Advices from Saxony ſay, that the King of Poland was taken very ill juſt at the Time he was ſetting out for Warſaw. Advices from Conſtantinople ſay, that the Interpreter who came hither with the late Turkiſh Ambaſſadour having given in a Liſt to the Grand Vizier of the Preſents which that Ambaſſadour received here, the Grand Vizier has taken them all to himſelf, except a Watch he has left to the Ambaſſadour, and another to his Son. Letters from Vienna ſay, that the Aulick Council has reſolved on a Marriage between the Archdutcheſs the preſent Emperour's eldeſt Daughter, and the Prince of Lorrain the Duke's eldeſt Son; and that the States of Bohemia will appoint the Prince to ſucceed to that Kingdom after the Emperour's Deceaſe. Advices from Venice ſay, that part of the Turkiſh Fleet has been ſeen off the Coaſts of Italy, and very much alarmed the Venetians, but that the Commander of the Fleet gave them Assurances that the Grand Signior would strictly keep the Treaty of Passarowitz, and that these Preparations ought not to give the Venetians any Disturbance; by which 'tis conjectured the Turks intend to attack the Island of Malta, where the Great Master lying dangerously ill 'tis feared that Circumstance may facilitate the Turks Designs.

London, July 7.

On the 5th Instant His Majesty went from Kensington to Hounslow-Heath, where His Majesty's Royal Regiment of Horse Guards commanded by his Grace the Duke of Bolton, His Majesty's own Regiment of Horse, commanded by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Cobham, and Brigadier Honywood's Regiment of Dragoons, passed in Review and performed their Exercise before His Majesty, who was accompanied by his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; and attended by a great Number of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction.
